

Mother Goose on the Loose Hatchlings: Ready to Hatch

Materials Checklist

This downloadable checklist of props needed to set up for your Ready-to-Hatch sessions makes it easy to gather the materials. Remember to include yourself and any other staff members as you count out items!

- Magnetic board, Flannel board, or Mini Easel.
- Ready to Hatch* Panels
- 1 empty Mother Goose on the Loose tote bag for collecting maracas
- Ready to Hatch* Kits (one per person to place on chairs before the program starts, one for the facilitator and a few extra just in case) consisting of:
  - Mother Goose on the Loose Tote Bag (to hold all the items)
  - Chickitas (one per kit)
  - Hello, My World* by Jannie Ho (one per kit)
  - Hatchlings Song Sheet (one per kit)
  - Early Literacy Calendars (one per kit)
- 1 Display Kit for “In the Nest” containing:
  - A Mother Goose on the Loose tote bag
  - the Happy Baby cardboard book,
  - the Wiggle! March! indestructible book,
  - a maraca,
  - a frog puppet,
  - an “In the Nest” songbook, and
  - an early literacy calendar.
- Homemade shaker (water bottle with dried lentils or rice) for display
- A few stuffed animals for parents who bring older siblings