

SESSION 2

WELCOME

Hello, Hatchlings Families!

A few reminders

Unexpected is expected

Calm down without the crowd

Respect baby's rest

Hands on exploration

Stay Engaged; Silence phones

Let's go around and introduce ourselves!

If You're Happy & You Know It (Since I Love You Very Much)

Babies hear words while you talk to them.

Your voice is their favorite sound. Back and forth conversations are the best. Singing, talking, and sharing books with babies builds their brains and their language skills.

RHYME

Old Mother Goose when she wanted to wander, would fly through the air on a very fine gander.

QUESTION

Did you have tummy time last week?

It's best to try tummy time when your baby seems most happy.

Tummy time should always be supervised by an adult.

The safest way for babies to sleep is on their backs.

Two month olds enjoy looking at faces

If You're Sleepy and You Know It, Give a Yawn.

Share books with your baby by talking, singing, playing, or asking questions. If baby responds, even with a sound, repeat the response and add on to it.

Smiling at your baby is very important.

I've Got Something in My Pocket

I've got something in my pocket,
it belongs across my face.
I keep it very close at hand,
in a most convenient place.
I'm sure you couldn't guess it if you guessed a long, long while.
So I'll take it out and put it on,
it's a Great Big Loving Smile!

Books Away

Try to match the words in the songs with visual cues. Try singing about sizes and showing them at the same time, or naming body parts and movements.

This Is Big, Big, Big & We Clap Our Hands Together

Let's play Peek-a-boo.
Peek-a-boo is a fun way to distract your baby.

Rocking comforts, but dancing rocks!

Movement fires up the brain and helps baby learn new words to describe motion. Each rhyme is followed by a fun fact about that motion.

This is Bill Hernandez

Rhyme: Rum Pum Pum, This is My Drum!

Listen for the sounds in your name as you tap out your name in syllables.

Rhyme: And We Walk...

Freeze games with a baby should only involve gentle movements. You can add more movements as your baby gets older.

Hokey Pokey

“I love you without a doubt”

Handy Spandy

And we walk!

Bounce!

Dance!

“I love you without a doubt!”

Babies love listening to and making animal sounds.

Making animal sounds helps children hear the small sounds in words. This helps with learning how to read.

I Went To Visit the Farm One Day & When the Cows Get Up in the Morning

Wiggle! March!

Wordless books are great to use with babies. You can make up your own stories or songs.

Little Frog On a Log

You can find all the songs we've sung today in the song booklet, which you'll receive at the end of the session.

Changing the words to songs and rhymes keeps them fun.

We All Shake Our Shakers, Rhyme: Pizza Pizza Hot
Song: Wheels on the Bus
Name the place you are visiting!

Pizza, pizza hot.
Pizza pizza cold,
Pizza, pizza in the box, nine days old.
Some like it hot.
Some like it cold.
Some like it in the box,
nine days old. ICK!

Shakers away, shakers away, put your shakers away today. (repeat)

Singing clean up songs makes cleaning up fun!

Singing lullabies calms and relaxes babies.

Rocking motions and hearing your heartbeat calms them down.

Baby, Baby

to the tune of “Twinkle, Twinkle”

Baby, baby you’re my star.
I love you just as you are.
You’re the apple of my eye,
You will grow to be so high.
Baby, baby, you’re my star.
I love you just as you are.

You can also use “Baby” and then substitute your baby’s name.

Libraries are places for finding answers to your questions.

Librarians help people find what they are looking for. Here are some things you can find at the library:

Books

Friendly and helpful librarians

Computers

Libraries welcome parents and babies.

Meet other families with babies at the library.
Meet future friends during library programs.

Free library cards for borrowing many things!

The place for you and the place for me is the local public library!

Oh, the place for you and the place for me is the local public library.
They have books and things that they lend for free.
It's the latest, it's the greatest,
it's the library.

Educational, informational, entertainment that's sensational.
It's a way of life, it's for you and me.
It's the latest, it's the greatest,
it's the library.

(Dum ba da da da dum, dum dum)

The more words your baby learns, the better!

There are four things you can do to build your baby's brain:
Talk, sing, share books, and play!

Talk, Sing, Share Books, and Play

QUESTION

What songs do you or your baby like most?
